It seems to be somewhat difficult to get a quorum of the Capital ground commissioners together, yet there is important work before them. RICHARDS avenue is becoming quite a popular thoroughfare with people who desire to make a short cut from First South to South Temple. MINING seems to have taken the place of real estate business to a considerable extent, although there are a few important transfers made daily. THE gold-brick swindle was the talk of the town yesterday. It is a hoary chestnut, but it seems that there are people who are always ready to crack it. THE first straw that made its appearance on the street yesterday. It was a reporter on the front. Another evidence, gentlemen, that the frost is ever in the lead. It is a noted fact that those suits made to order at Cutler's, 30 Main, from Provo mills, all wool cloth, will outwear three ordinary ready-made suits. We guarantee satisfaction. C. B. MARLAND, of the Conkling Sampling works, says the outlook for mining was never better, and good roads in the various mining camps will see a big influx of ore to Salt Lake. He was found guilty, and Judge Lacey sent him up for a hundred days. Thomas W. Wampler, charged with assaulting a young man named Gaylord, testified that the 20 drinks were John Doe, John Wilson and Richard Thompson. TUESDAY night about 11 o'clock a grocery store near the Warm Springs was broken into, entrance being gained by a front window. The thieves removed all the goods from around the pane of glass and broke it in pieces. It was evidently money they were after, and they got none, as there is never any money left over night. They are invited to come again, when they will be better received with a shotgun. This is the third time within a few months that this store has been burglarized. An important mining suit was commenced in the Third district court yesterday. It seems that a short time ago the Centennial-Eureka people applied for a patent to the Boom mill and the Norton mining claim, located near the mouth of the Bullion-Beck and Champion. P. L. Lamm and M. L. Powers put in a protest, claiming that they owned the Aquarius lode, a valuable piece of property which is included in the Boom mill. In accordance with the law, the plaintiffs bring this suit to determine the ownership of the ground mentioned. DOK C. TUFFS, who was recently fined for an assault upon his wife, was tried before Commissioner Greenman yesterday morning on the charge of assaulting a woman, wife of a sister at his residence south of this city on the evening of April 18. Some rather tall swearing was done by the witnesses, Tuff and his wife testifying that no assault was made, while Miss Norton and Mr. Newell, the complaining witnesses, swore positively that the defendant did commit the offense charged. Miner Stocks Show More Stamina than for a Week.

HORN SILVER IS BRACING UP

Some of the Big Brokers Lend a Hand to Whooop the Mining Share Market.

The big brokers resumed their places in the stock pit at yesterday's call, and gave their favorite stocks a friendly lift in the bidding. Hammerberger defended the honor of Apex by purchasing a 1,000 batch from Tom Carter at 11 cents. After a longer bout, Hammerberger stepped in to help it out by purchasing 5,000 shares from Troweck and Stevenson. Hammerberger also bought Horn Silver, purchasing 100 shares of Stevenson at $3.20 and 400 at $3.25. Two thousand shares of Malad passed from Hammerberger to Stevenson at 3 cents. Troweck sold Hammerberger 5,000 Stanley at 16 cents.

MINING NOTES.

Assayer Humphreys, of Blingham, reports that the first shipment of Minnie ore netted $80 per ton. George S. Frink, of New York city, secretary of the Queen of the Hills mine, Bellevue, Idaho, is in the city. The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the stock exchange will be held at the secretary's office next Saturday at 3 p.m. Colonel Nick Troweck, manager of the Niagara Mining and Smelting company, leaves for New York city to-day on business connected with the company. Assayer Stewart made an assay of ore taken from a prospect located on one of the islands of the Great Salt Lake that gave 30 ounces of silver and a "trace" of gold. W. W. Chisholm, manager of the Centennial-Eureka, departed for Oakland, Cal., yesterday, being called there by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his aged father. Twenty-four tons of Centennial-Eureka ore purchased by the Hanauer smelter Tuesday brought $2,500. The ore assayed 3.75 per cent lead, 399.7 ounces silver and 1.65 ounces of gold.

GOOD TIMES AHEAD

The Finest Crops for Years While Europe is Barren.

H. Sommerhoff, of Woerchesoff & Co., New York Stock Brokers, Predicts Higher Prices.

THE HERALD reporter within a week visited with Dewey, took the hand of a Vanderbilt, interviewed the great Warwick, who was up to the eyes in the McKinley's political career, but these are mere details compared to meeting H. Sommerhoff and W. Watson, Jr., the great New York stock brokers, and if not a real German baron, is what is more—the Prince of good fellows. These gentlemen are traveling over the country in their private car on a tour of observation, and from what we have seen of the crop prospects predict the greatest prosperity this country has seen for years. "Europe," said Mr. Sommerhoff, "is without any crop prospects, while in this country the outlook at this time of the year was never so encouraging. A big crop, with Europe to supply at prices above anything known for years, means plenty of money in all the channels of trade and a large advance in the prices of stocks. You are safe in buying anything at present prices that has any merit to it." is the New York broker's way of putting it. Mr. Sommerhoff and Mr. Watson, Jr., are the guests of the Templeton during their stay in this city.

THE MCCORMICK BUILDING.

The McCormick Building filed its articles of incorporation with the county clerk yesterday. The purpose for which the corporation is formed are to erect, own, manage, control, lease and rent a store and office building, and to own the land on which the same is situated and the appurtenances thereto.

The capital stock is $300,000, divided into 3,000 shares of the par value of $100 each. The stock is held as follows: W. S. McCormick, 900 shares; W. W. Chisholm, 100 shares; A. Hammer, 50 shares; Josiah Barnett, 10 shares; F. D. Kimball, 10 shares; W. S. McCormick, trustee, 1,350 shares. A. Washington, manager of the McCormick building, on the site of the old Kimball & Lawrence corner.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Secretary Gillespie reports that a San Antonio, Texas, man has written him that he wants to invest from $15,000 to $20,000 in Salt Lake property.

A Colorado mining man wants to know all about Deep Creek. The secretary mailed him one of THE HERALD's fine maps, stating that it was the best he could do. A Washington man writes that he expects to open a natural museum in this city. A Pacific coast machinery company is about to start a branch in this city.

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE.

The annual meeting of the real estate exchange, which was to have occurred yesterday, was adjourned for one week to secure a larger attendance.

Work on the First East Street Pavement Begun.

THE DEPUTY TREASURER SCHEME

Spafford Says the Halley Road will be in Operation Before Mr. Bacon's Deep Creek Road is Built.

The grade for the sidewalk pavement on First East street has been put in proper condition by the steam roller, and as soon as the gravel has been tamped and boxed in, the work of laying the stradamast-mastic walk will be commenced. A carload of tools have arrived and Mr. Barton says the expert workmen will arrive to-day. He is confident that the pavement will demonstrate all that has been said in its favor, and the property owners appear to be equally confident. The work will doubtless be commenced this week.

CHEAP SUGAR.

William Lloyd Garrison's Recent Address at Danvers.

Just now the protectionists are jubilant over the removal of the duty on sugar, and point to it as a vindication of the McKinley bill. Is admitting sugar untaxed protection or free trade? If it is protection, then I am a protectionist, and am willing to work for more of the same sort. If it is free trade, why are you so happy over it, Mr. Protectionist? Especially since you profess to believe that the foreigner pays the duty, and its removal is therefore a boon to him instead of to us. Ah, but the price has been cheapened 2 cents a pound to the American consumer, you declare. Does not that look as if he paid the tax before McKinley struck it off? Or does free trade in sugar save the foreigner and the American each 2 cents a pound, and if it does, why is it not wise to extend the blessing further and treat wool, iron, and coal the same way? Indeed, it would have been far better to liberate these commodities or necessities before freeing sugar. And for this reason: the duty on sugar was a revenue duty, and was nearly all paid into the treasury of the United States. There was a satisfaction in that. But when we pay an extra price for wool, or coal, or iron, which the tariff compels us to do, who gets the benefit of it? The treasury, a part, surely, but a small part. The wool-growers, the iron-masters, and the coal-baron of Pennsylvania absorb the bulk of it, which explains why Ohio and Pennsylvania were the strongest advocates of the McKinley bill and contributed so liberally to the campaign funds that elected this protective administration. And you men of Massachusetts sit passively by, you assist in permitting these wool and mineral states to tax this commonwealth for their own benefit, or rather for the benefit of a fraction of the people of these states who hold the monopoly of those industries, while our founders are idle and New England suffers. When a despot treats his people so, submission is a necessity, but when the sovereign people of a republic treat themselves in the same way, they deserve the characterization of Carlyle, which we can apply to this country as well as to England, and say, "The United States is composed of 63,000,000 people, mostly fools."

THE DEPUTY TREASURER.

The resolution introduced in the council on Tuesday night providing that the office of deputy treasurer be abolished and that all matters pertaining to licenses be transferred to a license clerk, created some surprise, as it is only a short time since the latter office was abolished and the office of deputy treasurer created. Councilman Cohn says he is satisfied now that the former action of the council was ill-advised. The true inwardness of the move has not yet developed, but Councilman Hall Tuesday called for a further explanation next Tuesday night.

ANOTHER BIG SCHEME.

Chief Stanton has devised a plan for putting telephone and other wires on build ings, so as not to interfere with the new men in case of fire. His plan is to have all wires stretched from the poles to the top of the building and then carried down through the building. This plan is considered a good one, and the last issue of the leading journal of the country gives it favorable mention.

ENTERTAINING BEN.

The city council intends to do its share in entertaining President Harrison, and a committee from the council will co-operate with the citizens' committee in making the President's stay a pleasant one.

THE RAILWAY FRANCHISE.

The Salt Lake, Halley & Puget Sound railway people have at last secured their franchise, and they promise to make the dirt fly in a short time. The surveying party, under Major Wilkes, will soon leave the field. Councilman Spafford, who has paid some attention to the matter, thinks the scheme will go through all right, and he offers the bet that the road will be built before the Bacon road to Deep Creek.

NO DOUBT IT IS NEEDED.

If anybody thinks that the city doesn't need the $300,000 to be derived from the sale of city bonds they should look at the little items which must soon be met. Councilman Lynn, while rendered temporarily away by Councilman Pembroke's going on Tuesday night, inadvertently gave them on the city. Here they are:

Sewerage	$15,000
Waterworks	2,000
Fire department	35,000
Land purchase	10,000
City and county building	4,000
Sidewalks	12,000
Gasoline	1,000
Cemetery	11,000
Ornamentation	10,000

THEY HAVE GONE.

The bunco men have shut up their shops and quitted Salt Lake. Marshal Young threatened to vac every mother's son of them and they evidently decided to skip while they had the chance. It is said that number went down the Ontario and were in the interior towns before leaving the territory.

THEY ARE WORN BY SOLDIERS.

Evidence of the value of Alcock's Porous Plaster came in the following letter from Charles Yeager, of Company A, 11th U. S. Infantry, stationed at Fort Sully, Dakota.

I have been using Alcock's Porous Plaster for the last ten years, and feel quite lost if I have not a half a dozen in my possession. In this section of the country we have at times very severe cold. When the thermometer is below zero, I find that an Alcock's Porous plaster on the pit of the stomach is invaluable. They appear not only to warm the body, but to invigorate the digestion. At times I have been greatly troubled with a lame back. Two Alcock's Porous Plasters placed upon the spine invariably cure me in two or three days. Sometimes I have had a severe cough and very bad cold. An Alcock's Porous Plaster placed around the throat and on the chest, May 1, 1891, for the reason that I was up in less than twenty-four hours, and in less than twenty-four hours, and in less than twenty-four hours, I was entirely recovered. I was also cured of a chronic cough by the use of Alcock's Plasters.
